The 9th International Foster Care Research Conference

Continuity and Disruption in Foster Care

Université Paris Nanterre (France), 27-29th of September 2017

CALL FOR ABSTRACTS

The 9th International Foster Care Research Network Conference will be a place to share research findings and questions on the pathways of children in foster care, their experiences of disruption and continuity, and on how practitioners and policies address these issues in different countries.

Whilst the 27th and 28th of September will be dedicated to plenary conferences and parallel sessions for researchers to present and discuss their findings (in English), the 29th of September will be organised jointly with ONPE (Observatoire National de la Protection de l'Enfance, former ONED) and ANPF (Association Nationale des Placements Familiaux), and will be translated into French, in order to allow for presentations and debates from and with French practitioners from the field of Foster Care.

The call for abstracts for 27th and 28th of September is now open until 30th of March 2017:

Abstracts should be in English and submitted online

<http://fostercareresearch.u-paris10.fr/call-for-abstracts/>

Abstracts should not exceed 250 words, including 3 to 5 keywords and some references.

Different types of presentation are possible:

- Individual oral presentation
- Symposia presentation (3 presentations, the authors must represent different institutions)
- Poster for Friday, 29th of September, in English or preferably in French

Two “scientific speed dating” sessions for PhD students will be organised on the 27th and 28th of September.

After acceptance of the abstracts, registration will be open to presenters from May 1st till July 15th 2017.

Paris Nanterre University is located 20 minutes away from Paris centre, access from airports and railway from Europe.
